

NYSSA CORPORATION LIMITED

CODE FOR INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

The Code is a guide to professional conduct for independent directors. Adherence to these standards by independent directors and fulfilment of their responsibilities in a professional and faithful manner will promote confidence of the investment community, particularly minority shareholders, regulators and companies in the institution of independent directors.

Philosophy

The Company endeavors to conduct its business in a manner, which is ethical and transparent with all stakeholders in the Company. The Company's philosophy is concerned with ethics, values and morals of the Company and its directors, who are expected to act in the best interest of the Company and remain accountable to shareholders and other stakeholders for their action.

Applicability

This Code of Conduct shall apply to all Independent and Non-executive Directors of the Company (the "Independent Directors").

Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall bear the same meaning as ascribed to the same in the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and Rules made thereunder.

Guidelines of professional conduct

An Independent director shall:

- uphold ethical standards of integrity and probity;
- act objectively and constructively while exercising his duties;
- exercise his responsibilities in bona fide manner in the interest of the Company;
- devote sufficient time and attention to his professional obligations for informed and balanced decision making;
- not allow any extraneous considerations that will vitiate his exercise of objective independent judgment in the paramount interest of the Company as a whole, while concurring in or dissenting from the collective judgment of the Board in its decision making;
- not engage in any activity that interferes with the performance or responsibility to the Company or is otherwise in conflict with or prejudicial to the Company;
- not abuse his position to the detriment of the Company or its shareholders or for the purpose of gaining direct or indirect personal advantage or advantage for any associated person;
- refrain from any action that would lead to loss of his independence;
- where circumstances arise which make an independent director lose his independence, the independent director must immediately inform the Board accordingly;

- assist the Company in implementing the best corporate governance practices;
- respect the confidentiality of data and information made available to them from time to time. Such respect for confidentiality shall also continue after such person ceases to hold office as an Independent Director.

Role and functions

The Independent Directors shall:
